Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 31-37 and 39-47 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the closest prior art, Shteyn (US 6,611,654) teaches a method and system enables a subscriber to select a specific broadcast program for recording and a specific location and time frame for playback the recorded program. For instance, a client at device 302 selects a broadcast of a basketball game for recording and selects to playback the recorded basketball game at device 304 different from region/location of device 302, wherein clients of device 302 and device 304 have subscribed to a service provided by server 104 (see col. 3, line 46 to col. 4, line 18 and figure 3). Suri (US 6,963,579) teaches a system and method for broadband roaming connectivity using DSL. However, Shteyn and Suri, alone or in combination, fails to teach or fairly suggests at least the features of receiving a user request at a second service provider..., checking a subscription arrangement exists between the user associated with the user request and a first service provider configured to broadcast over a home network..., denying a service to the first decoder while the control messages are being sent to the second decoder, if the subscription arrangement exists, transmitting the control messages..., wherein the control messages are configured to descramble a program..., wherein the subscription authorization module is configured to check that a subscription arrangement enabling roaming... as variously recited in claim 31, 33, 39, and 45.
3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
